Rockdale County Rolls Out Strategic Plan Survey

ROCKDALE COUNTY, GA. – Recently the Rockdale County Board of Commissioners appointed members to the Rockdale County Strategic Plan Taskforce, a team charged with collecting citizen input through a survey to improve the Rockdale community. The survey will go live on the Rockdale County website (rockdalecountyga.gov) on Wed., May 1 until Thurs., June 20.

This survey will ask citizens and stakeholders to give feedback in the following subject areas: Public Safety, Economic Development, Quality of Life, Transportation/ Infrastructure, Education/ Workforce Development, and Transparency.

“We need to be proactive in establishing the County’s plans for the future. The citizens have every right to be put first in this process,” Chairman Nesbitt states. “This survey gives every resident of Rockdale County the opportunity to voice their opinion regarding the vision of where they work, live, and play.”

Strategic Plan Taskforce members and County Ambassadors will be onsite at the following events to promote and assist citizens with the survey:

- Taste of Conyers – May 4
- E-Recycling & Paper Shredding – May 11
- BOC on the Road Meeting at Honey Creek Elementary School – May 21
- S.P.A.R.C Rockdale 2019 – May 23
- Costly Mill Park Beach Opening Day – May 25
- Dog Park Grand Opening, Richardson Park – June 1
- 2019 Rockdale Employment Summit – June 7
- BOC on the Road Meeting at Barksdale Elementary School– June 18
