To Whom It May Concern:

This letter serves to clarify the unique characteristics and market standing of Calgon Carbon’s Filtrasorb 820 granular activated carbon (GAC) product.

Filtrasorb 820 originates from metallurgical grade bituminous coal mined in the United States of America. The raw coal is subsequently manufactured into GAC via reagglomeration and thermal activation processes, again in the United States. The consistent performance and physical properties of Filtrasorb 820 are directly attributable to the consistent physical properties of the raw materials and performance of the manufacturing processes.

The unique mixture of raw materials and manufacturing approaches influence the properties of the final GAC product. The density, abrasion, ash, and adsorption characteristics for Filtrasorb 820 are unique to this product, and are all dictated by the specific combination of raw materials and process conditions. To obtain a product that delivers the consistent, high-level performance of Filtrasorb 820, you must specify and purchase Filtrasorb 820. Calgon Carbon Corporation is the sole manufacturer and supplier of this material and Principle Environmental is our exclusive representative in the State of Georgia.

Michael Prevade

If Buyer becomes legally compelled to disclose confidential information, Buyer shall provide Seller with prompt written notice so that Seller may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy or waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. If such protective order or other remedy is not obtained, or if Seller waives compliance with the provisions of this Agreement, Buyer shall furnish only that portion of the confidential information which Buyer is legally required to disclose and shall exercise reasonable efforts to obtain reliable assurance that confidential treatment shall be accorded the confidential information. Buyer shall not undertake any qualitative or quantitative analysis, reverse engineering or replication of any part of Seller's products, samples or prototypes without Seller's specific written authorization.

No waiver, consent, modification, amendment or change of the terms contained in this Agreement shall be binding unless made in writing and signed by Seller and Buyer.
