Rockdale County Board of Elections Shares Options to Vote for Upcoming Elections

ROCKDALE COUNTY, Ga. – Rockdale County Board of Elections is working to make sure citizens are still able to vote as conveniently as possible during this time for the General Primary/Nonpartisan/Special/Presidential Preference Primary occurring on June 9, 2020.

The options being offered to vote include mail absentee ballots, in-person early voting, Saturday voting and in-person Election Day voting. Early In-Person voting will take place at 1400 Parker Road ONLY. Election Day In-Person voting will take place at the voters assigned Polling Place. For voters voting in person, due to social distancing, please be prepared to wait in possibly long lines.

Rockdale County Board of Elections strongly encourages voters to vote by mail. Voters can obtain the request form for an absentee by mail ballot by visiting <https://rockdalecountyga.gov/county-departments/board-of-elections-voter-registration/>. Absentee by Mail Ballot Request can be submitted to: absentee@rockdalecountyga.gov.

The June 9, 2020 Election timeline is as followed:

- Tues., April 21 – First day ballots will be mailed to Absentee by Mail Voters
- Mon., May 11 – Voter Registration Deadline
- Mon., May 18 – Fri., June 5 – Early Voting Period at Parker Road ONLY
- Sat., May 30 – Saturday Voting, 9 a.m. – 4 p.m.
