

Good student behavior is extremely important in creating the kind of environment in which students will be able to realize their greatest opportunities for growth. Good discipline habits assume consideration for the rights of others, cooperation with everyone in the Youth Law Camp, respect for others and the property of others.

GOOD STUDENT BEHAVIOR INCLUDES THE FOLLOWING:

I. COURTESY/RESPECT FOR EVERYONE

- Well-behaved students treat everyone as they themselves wish to be treated.
- No harassing or purposeful embarrassing other students or adults
- No threats or intimidation
- No foul language, obscene gestures, racial, ethnic, religious slurs and disrespectful language or actions
- No breaking of any rule regarding courtesy and respect established by the host organizations

II. CONCERN FOR THE SAFETY OF EVERYONE

- Well-behaved students act maturely so they and no one else is in danger
- No fighting, hitting or assaulting
- No throwing of any objects
- No dangerous objects (i.e. weapons, fireworks, etc.)
- No leaving court property without express permission
- No running, tripping, play fighting or rowdy behavior
- No drugs/alcohol
- No smoking/ tobacco
- No breaking of any rules regarding safety established by host organizations

III. RESPECT FOR PERSONAL PROPERTY

- Well-behaved students treat everyone's personal belongings in the same manner that they want their things treated.
- No vandalism
- No stealing or possession of stolen goods
- No breaking of any rule regarding respect for personal property established by the host organization

IV. RESPECT FOR THE RIGHT TO LEARN AND TEACH WITHOUT DISRUPTION

- Well-behaved students will act in such a manner so that their behavior is not disruptive and will display all the good conduct qualities.
- No cell phones, video games, or other such equipment during presentations may be used

- No violation of any such rule regarding respect for the right to learn and enjoy the program without disruption established by hosting organizations.

V. APPROPRIATE RESPONSES TO THE REASONABLE DIRECTIONS OF ORGANIZERS AND SPEAKERS

- A well behaved student follows the directions of the hosting organizations.

I have reviewed the rules and standards of behavior for the activity and agree that the student named above will abide by them and honor the authority of the New Rock Legal Society and Magistrate Court of Rockdale County (hereafter referenced as the hosting organizations). I acknowledge that if the student named above is released early from the event because of any disciplinary problem, I agree to immediately pick up the student from the event location or, at my expense, arrange for the student to be transported from the event at my expense and under my complete responsibility.
